

PRAYER

TO THE LONDON RAIN

In a city where it is raining
Like three times in a week
You see people with masks
Walking on the street

They're not going for a party
It's not even HALLOWEEN
It's a new way of life
LIFE THAT NEVER BEEN

It's Corona, deadly virus
Earth is Shaking to his core
This generation is going through
No one has gone before

So, London rain, I pray today
Next time when you plan on coming
Please wash everything away
Invite happiness to stay.
